

With My God Over Walls
Psalm 18:28-30
Cleveland, January 7, 2018

Psalm 18:29 (ISV)

*With your help[a] I will run through an army,
with help from[b] my God I leap over walls.*

- Walls That Face Us
- Walls at Work
- Walls at Home
- Walls Related to Physical Wellbeing
- Spiritual Walls
- Walls between You and God

About Psalm 18:

I. Praise God
Psalm 18:1-3

God is My Rock!

A. The Rock is a Shelter

B. The Is a Foundation
Matthew 7:25

C. The Rock is My Deliverance
Psalm 18:13-17 describes the deliverance David experienced

II. The Lord is My Light

Psalm 18:28

A. God is the Source of Power

B. God Turns Darkness into Light

III. The Lord is My Help

David says: "...with help from my God I leap over walls..."

The Biblical Principle

Psalm 18:20-21/ 26-27

We cannot fool God. He will reveal himself to us in accordance to the sincerity in which we seek him.

Dangerous false teaching: Salvation without change, discipleship, or commitment.

Spring over the walls that face you this year. Spring over them with God, as he provides the power, wisdom, and help to do so.